

Skill Development Activity for Migrant Informal Workers in Mae Sot District, Tak Province

The PROMISE Project, implemented by IOM in collaboration with the Foundation for Labour and Employment Promotion and the Smile-lay Club, aims to enhance the skills of migrant workers, particularly those in the informal sector in Mae Sot, Tak Province. The project seeks to increase opportunities for stable employment and expand alternative sources of income.

A total of 40 participants joined the training, including 29 women and 11 men. The training covered two main areas:

1. Beverage preparation (various types of drinks)
2. Hotel services

The sessions were conducted by trainers from Mae Sot Technical College, Tak Province. This training was held on 19–20 July 2025.

Training in coffee preparation

Training in other beverage preparation

Training in hotel housekeeping, including cleaning and bed-making

